Alejandro Perez

How many hours did I work since the last meeting?

- 1.5 hours

What was done since the last scrum meeting?

- Continued organizing the GitHub project board and reviewed how Sprint 1 backlog items should be prioritized moving forward. Also discussed how future architecture and workflow diagrams may be structured for upcoming deliverables.

What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?

- Continue refining project documentation and begin outlining more detailed architecture and workflow concepts for the application.

What are the hurdles?

- Still refining the MVP scope to make sure the project remains expanded enough for the semester timeline.

Ahanaf Akif

How many hours did I work since the last meeting?

- 2 hours

What was done since the last scrum meeting?

- Continued discussing authentication workflow ideas and reviewed possible validation and account management requirements for users.

What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?

- Continue refining authentication planning and help review how user account data may connect with future progress tracking features.

What are the hurdles?

- Still discussing which authentication and account features should be prioritized for the MVP version.

Josue Gamon Fortes

How many hours did I work since the last meeting?

- 1.5 hours

What was done since the last scrum meeting?

- Worked on refining dashboard and navigation wireframe concepts and reviewed possible layouts for progress tracking and user profile sections.

What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?

- Continue improving wireframe organization and begin outlining more detailed user flow ideas for the application.

What are the hurdles?

- Trying to keep the UI organized and responsive without making the design too complex early in development.

Allen Cruz
