Alejandro Perez

How many hours did I work since the last meeting?

- 2 hours

What was done since the last scrum meeting?

- Created the GitHub repository and started organizing the project structure for both frontend and backend. Also created the initial README and discussed the branch organizations with the team.

What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?

- Continue setting up the frontend structure and start configuring the backend server and dependencies.

What are the hurdles?

- Still deciding on the best folder structure to keep the project organized as more features are added.

Ahanaf Akif

How many hours did I work since the last meeting?

- 1.5 hours

What was done since the last scrum meeting?

- Continued researching authentication methods and started looking into how JWT authentication would connect with the frontend and backend.

What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?

- Start planning the user authentication flow and possible account features for users.

What are the hurdles?

- Need to make sure the authentication system stays simple enough for the sprint timeline.

Josue Gamon Fortes

How many hours did I work since the last meeting?

- 1.5 hours

What was done since the last scrum meeting?

- Worked on wireframe ideas for the dashboard and workout tracking pages and also researched layouts used in other fitness and wellness apps.

What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?

- Continue improving the wireframes and start discussing color schemes and overall UI style with the team.

What are the hurdles?

- Balancing a clean UI design with the time available throughout this semester.

Allen Cruz
