End time: 5:32 PM

Alejandro Perez

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 2 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Continued reviewing architecture planning and discussed how future system diagrams should represent the interaction between user accounts, fitness tracking features, and application workflows. Also reviewed Sprint 2 priorities to ensure they remain aligned with the MVP scope.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - Continue refining architecture documentation and begin organizing the major workflows that should be included in future deliverables.
- What are the hurdles?
 - Still determining the appropriate level of detail for architecture and workflow diagrams while keeping documentation clear and manageable.

Ahanaf Akif

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 2 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Continued refining authentication requirements and reviewed possible user account workflows that may be included in future documentation and design artifacts.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - Continue documenting authentication requirements and help review how account-related features connect to other planned application components.

- What are the hurdles?
 - Still discussing which account-related features should be considered part of the MVP versus future enhancements.

Josue Gamon Fortes

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 1.5 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Continued refining wireframes and reviewed layout ideas for progress tracking, goal management, and dashboard organization.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - Continue improving wireframe consistency and begin organizing more detailed user flow concepts between the application's major sections.
- What are the hurdles?
 - Trying to maintain a clean and consistent design while planning for future functionality that may be introduced in later sprints.

Allen Cruz

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 1.5 hours
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Continued reviewing workflow documentation and discussed how future diagrams can better represent user interactions and system processes throughout the application.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - Continue helping organize workflow documentation and review how user stories align with future project deliverables.
- What are the hurdles?
 - Still evaluating the best approach for documenting workflows in a way that remains clear, organized, and easy to update throughout the semester.
